

Speling Privacy Policy

Updated at: Aug. 1. 2026

Information we collect:

Speling operates under a minimal-data paradigm. We do not ask for or store real names, email addresses, phone numbers, precise physical locations, or payment details. The only personal requirement is a simple confirmation that you meet the minimum legal age requirement (13+).

The data we store in our databases:

Category	Stored fields	Purpose
User	• Auto-incre mented user ID • Discord username • Typo count	Unique internal identifier, your publicly displayed handle from Discord OAuth and the total typo count you made in your posts
Post	• Auto-incre mented ID • Author’s ID • Typo count • Content • Created at date • Image URL (optional)	Unique internal identifier, author’s unique identifier, typo count of post’s content, text content, the date when it was posted, image URL if uploaded
Comment	• Auto-incre mented ID • Post’s ID • Author’s ID • Content	Unique internal identifier, Post’s unique identifier, author’s ID, the comment’s content
Like	• Auto-incre mented ID • User’s ID • Post’s ID	Unique internal identifier, User’s unique identifier, post’s ID that the like is on

No private messaging:

Speling does not have any way to send private messages that only a selected group of users can see. Everything you post (posts, comments, likes) are completely public.

Age verification & compliance (13+):

Speling is intended solely for individuals aged 13 and older. During account setup, users are required to confirm that they are at least 13 years old. We do not collect birth dates or official government identification. If we discover that a user under 13 has created an account, we will immediately delete their user ID and associated posts/comments.

How we use the stored information:

The minimal data stored is used exclusively to maintain core service features:

- Displaying Discord username next to your posts and comments
- Calculating public leaderboard based on total typo count
- Preventing duplicate likes on posts
- Making sure rules are followed

Third-Party sharing & tracking:

We do not sell, rent or monetize your data in any way. We do not share your data with third-party advertising trackers.

Data retention & Account deletion:

Users may request data deletion at any time which will wipe all of their data associated with Speling (user profile, posts, comments, likes).
